

BOWERMAN PLAN OF BRANCH LIBRARIES

Outlines City-Wide Extension at Chevy Chase Citizens' Association Meeting.

LACK OF FUNDS HAMPERED

A plan for city-wide extension of the Public Library, with special branch library buildings in Georgetown, the southwest, southeast and northeast sections of the city, and in Mount Pleasant, with branches in all suburban school buildings to be built, was outlined by Dr. George F. Bowerman at a meeting of the Chevy Chase Citizens' Association last night. The meeting was held in the E. V. Brown School.

Dr. Bowerman's dream, however, cannot be realized at this time, he said, because of the inadequacy of the heavy funds to maintain the proposed branches. Better support of the main library on the part of Congress is the main requisite for carrying out the city-wide plan, the librarian continued, and until better support is given the main organization the proposed expansion can hardly be attempted with success.

The association passed a resolution at the close of Dr. Bowerman's address, urging upon Congress the appropriation of adequate moneys for the local library system; requested the board of District Commissioners to provide library facilities in the E. V. Brown School building, and to refer the whole problem to the Federation of Citizens' Associations.

Better Support Necessary.

"The progress of public library facilities in Washington is dependent upon three things," Dr. Bowerman explained. "First, we need better support for the main organization—more money for books, and a larger and better paid force; second, the remainder of the Carnegie donation for branch libraries, amounting to $310,000, should be used to build branch libraries in various sections of the city, and, third, all new schools in the suburbs, and existing schools having additions built, should be provided with a library room."

Dr. Bowerman spoke of the Takoma Park branch library, saying that he had worked for its construction six years ago, and had always favored the library there. He said that the expense of maintaining the branch had been a heavy one on the main library, whose funds had not been increased to meet this expansion of activity. The increasing population of Takoma Park had more than justified the erection of the branch library there, Dr. Bowerman continued, and he had always been heartily in favor of the branch. The shortage of funds, he said, resulted in the closing of the branch library, and the working staff of the Public Library through resignation.

General Program of Trustees.

The general program of the trustees of the library, as explained by Mr. Bowerman, aimed first to induce Congress to provide sufficient funds for its development to meet the needs of the community, making possible the branching out into community work. He favored the plan of constructing school buildings with library facilities for the general public, as well as pupils, to be located on the ground floor with a direct opening on the street. He suggested that this idea should be written into the laws appropriating for school construction, so that the building would be recognized as both school and library. The association authorized a special committee to take up the subject with the board of commissioners and the municipal architect.

Resolutions were also adopted favoring the repeal of the "Borland amendment," which imposed the burden of expense for street improvement upon adjoining property owners. The delegate of the organization to the Federation of Citizens' Associations was instructed to work in the federation meetings for similar opposition to this legislation.

CHEERING NEWS RECEIVED BY JACKSON ASSOCIATION

Reports From Middle Western States Indicate Re-Election of Wilson.

The Jackson Democratic Association last night received reports from a number of states, including Illinois, Ohio, Wisconsin and Minnesota, indicating that Wilson would be successful in the election Tuesday. The association met at the Raleigh Hotel.

A number of applications for membership were submitted to the membership committee. The organization is the oldest political club in the country, with the exception of Tammany Hall. It was organized to support Andrew Jackson and has been in existence ever since, working for the democratic party. In all its years of activity it has had but three presidents, the first being John E. Norris, historically prominent as a political character. The second was his son, James L. Norris, who was succeeded by William Cranch McIntire, the present president. A grandson of John E. Norris and son of James L. Norris is a vice president of the organization.

The officers of the organization are: President, William Cranch McIntire; vice presidents, J. Holdsworth Gordon, William McK. Clayton, James L. Norris, Charles W. Ray, Dr. Samuel E. Lewis, Daniel S. Edwards, John G. Campbell, Dr. Cline W. Chipman, George Field, Dr. J. Fleet Luckett, Walter C. Balderson and Dr. James A. Watson; secretary, Clinton R. Colvin, and treasurer, Charles F. Sudworth.

Relieves ECZEMA (both moist and dry). Best for all skin diseases and eruptions. Colorless, odorless and will not stain the clothing. Read the WASHINGTON testimonials and compare its appearance, convenience, ease of using and results with those of other compounds claimed to be "just as good."

NEW POINTS RAISED IN HUTCHINS CONTEST

Statute of Limitations Invoked Against Probate of the Will of 1908.

An interesting law point, which, if sustained, would prevent the offering for probate of the two wills made by Stilson Hutchins, millionaire publisher, in 1908 and 1902, is raised by his son, Lee Hutchins, in an amended answer filed today to the petition of the widow, Rose Keeling Hutchins, for the probate of the will of 1908. The son invoked the statute of limitations and claims that the right of Mrs. Hutchins to propound that will, if any she ever had, did not accrue within three years of the filing of her petition.

Attacks Validity of Will.

Miss Mildred Rogers, a granddaughter of the testator, also filed a similar plea. Lee Hutchins also attacks the validity of the 1908 will in his answer in the event the court should hold that the statute of limitations does not apply. He charges that his father was then mentally incompetent, and that his signature to the alleged will was procured by undue influence. The son's amended answer was sworn to by him in New Hampshire September 27, 1915, but has just been filed.

Waited Over Three Years.

Stilson Hutchins died April 21, 1912, and it was not until July 31, 1915, that Mrs. Hutchins asked for the probate of the 1908 will. Her petition followed the returning of a verdict by a jury breaking the latest executed will of the millionaire, which was dated October 28, 1910. An appeal is now pending from this finding of the jury.

Should the court hold the statute applicable and the finding of the jury sustained, it is stated that an early termination of the contest over the Hutchins millions might be expected. Attorneys William E. Johnson and Myer Cohen represent Lee Hutchins. Miss Rogers is represented by Attorney Edmund H. Parry.

MANY ARE PAYING TRIBUTE TO NICHOLAS E. YOUNG

Funeral of Base Ball League Veteran Being Held This Afternoon at His Son's Home.

Long-time friends in the base ball world are paying tribute to Nicholas E. Young, one of the deans of professional base ball, who died Tuesday, at funeral services which are being held this afternoon at the home of his son, Robert H. Young, 1626 Newton street, near the Rev. Clarence A. Vincent, pastor of the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church, is officiating, and interment is to take place in Rock Creek cemetery after the services.

John K. Tener, president of the National Base Ball League, of which Mr. Young was president at one time for twenty-five years, and John A. Heydler, secretary of the league, are among those present.

Benjamin Minor, president, and E. J. Walsh, vice president, of the Washington base ball club, with which Mr. Young also was at one time connected, as well as Clark Griffith, manager of the local team, also are present.

Floral Tributes Unusually Elaborate.

A number of sporting writers are attending the services.

Pallbearers are M. W. Bowman, M. S. Baldwin, David S. Carl, Samuel B. Precourt, Charles R. Wright and Rev. Edwin Bliss.

The floral tributes are unusually elaborate and beautiful. They were contributed by friends in many parts of the country. One beautiful piece was the gift of ex-Gov. Morgan G. Buikley, first president of the National League, and was inscribed "To My Secretary."

David Gardner, colored, known as "Frisco Charlie," at Baltimore, was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary for shooting and killing Daniel Livers, also colored.
